

I urge you NOT to relax the rules on media ownership!
Consolidation of media into the hands of fewer and fewer large corporations will do irreparable harm to our Democracy by limiting sources of information and points of view.
This is not a decision to be taken lightly.
More consolidation than already exists would pose a grave threat to the future of this great nation. Please proceed with caution.